

I oppose the use of cell phones during airplane flights. The use of cell phones would be a constant disturbance to those having to sit next to people talking on the phone. Can you imagine having to sit in the middle of two people each having their own conversation?

This is a very bad idea.